6.3.1.1 The Carrier shall be entitled to rely upon all exclusions from liability under the Rules or legislation that would have been applied under Clause 6.1.1 above had the loss or damage occurred at sea or, if there was no carriage by sea, under the Hague Rules or COGSA or COGSA (USA) or COGWA if this Bill of Lading is subject to U.S. or Canadian law respectively.

6.3.1.2 Where under Clause 6.3.1.1 above, the Carrier is not liable in respect of some of the factors causing the loss or damage, he shall only be liable to the extent that those factors for which he is liable have contributed to the loss or damage.

- 6.3.1.3 Subject to Clause 6.3.3.3 below, where the Hague Rules or any legislation applying such Rules or the Hague-Visby Rules (such as COGSA or COGWA) is not compulsorily applicable, the Carrier's liability shall not exceed SGD1.00 per kilo of the gross weight of the Goods lost, damaged or in respect of which the claim arises or the value of such Goods, whichever is the lesser, subject to a maximum of SGD100.00 per single Bill of Lading claim.
- 6.3.1.4 The value of the Goods shall be determined according to the commodity exchange price at the place and time of delivery to the Merchant or at the place and time when they should have been so delivered or if there is no such price according to the current market price by reference to the normal value of Goods of the same kind and quality, at such place and time, always provided that the onus of proving such current market price shall be on the claimant failing which the carriers valuation shall be valid absolutely for all purposes.
- 6.3.2 Where the stage of Carriage where the loss or damage occurred can be proved:
- 6.3.2.1 the liability of the Carrier shall be determined by the provisions contained in any international convention or national law of the country which provisions:
- (a) cannot be departed from by private contract to the detriment of the Merchant; and
 - (b) would have applied if the Merchant had made a separate and direct contract with the Carrier in respect of the particular stage of Carriage where the loss or damage occurred and had received as evidence thereof any particular document which must be issued in order to make such international convention or national law applicable;

- 6.3.2.2 with respect to the transportation in the United States of America or in Canada to the Port of Loading or from the Port of Discharge, the responsibility of the Carrier shall be limited to procure transportation by carriers (one or more) and such transportation shall be subject to the inland carriers' contracts of carriage and tariffs and any law compulsorily applicable. The Carrier guarantees the fulfillment of such inland carriers' obligations under their contracts and tariffs.
- 6.3.2.3 Where neither Clause 6.3.2.1 nor Clause 6.3.2.2 above applies, any liability of the Carrier shall be determined by Clause 6.3.1 above.

6.3.3 GENERAL PROVISIONS

6.3.3.1 Delay and/or Consequential Loss

Save as otherwise provided herein, the Carrier shall in no circumstances be liable for direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage caused by delay or any other cause whatsoever and howsoever caused. Without prejudice to the foregoing, if the Carrier is found liable for delay, and where such delay is not excluded elsewhere in these provisions, liability shall be limited to the freight applicable to the relevant stage of the transport.

- 6.3.3.2 Insofar as the duties under this Bill of Lading relates to situations other than sea carriage, including but not limited to, pre-shipment or post-shipment, trucking, warehousing, storage, packing, labeling, stuffing/unstuffing, domestic or local trucking, clearance, customs, documentation, delivery, collection etc it is mutually hereby agreed that in any event whatsoever and whether the action is in contract or in tort, the carrier's liability shall be limited to SGD1.00 per kilogram only, subject further to a maximum of SGD100.00 per single claim/incident. Carrier's liability as spelt out hereunder shall be without prejudice to the carriers' rights to be paid/reimbursed for their costs of the services provided and which shall be paid in priority to any other claim.

6.3.3.3 Package or Shipping Unit Limitation

Where the Hague Rules or any legislation making such Rules compulsorily applicable to this Bill of Lading apply, the Carrier shall not, unless a declared value has been noted in accordance with Clause 6.3.3.4 below, be or become liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with the Goods in an amount per package or shipping unit in excess of the package or shipping unit limitation as laid down by such Rules or legislation. If no limitation amount is applicable under such Rules or legislation, the limitation shall be SGD1.00 per kilogram or SGD100.00 per package or invoice value, whichever is lesser always provided, that in respect of goods of a fragile or perishable nature or special goods, these are carried solely at the Merchant's risk without any liability whatsoever of the Carriers.

In such case, if the actual value of the Goods shall exceed such declared value, the value shall nevertheless be deemed to be the declared value and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the declared value and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

6.3.3.5 Definition of Package or Shipping Unit

Where a Container is used to consolidate Goods and such Container is stuffed by the Carrier, the number of packages or shipping units stated on the face of this Bill of Lading in the box provided shall be deemed the number of packages or shipping units for the purpose of any limit of liability per package or shipping unit provided in any international convention or national law relating to the carriage of Goods by sea. Except as aforesaid the Container shall be considered the package or shipping unit.

The words shipping unit shall mean each physical unit or piece of cargo not shipped in a package, including articles or things of any description whatsoever, except Goods shipped in bulk, and irrespective of the weight or measurement unit employed in calculating freight charges. As to Goods shipped in bulk, the limitation applicable thereto shall be the limitation provided in such convention or law which may be applicable, and in no event shall anything herein be construed to be a waiver of limitation as to Goods shipped in bulk.

6.3.3.6 Rust, etc.

It is agreed that superficial rust, oxidation or any like condition due to moisture, is not a condition of damage but is inherent to the nature of the Goods and acknowledgement of receipt of the Goods in apparent good order and condition is not a representation that such conditions of rust, oxidation or the like did not exist on receipt.

6.3.3.7 Notice of Loss or Damage

The Carrier shall be deemed prima facie to have delivered the Goods as described in this Bill of Lading unless notice of loss of or damage to the Goods indicating the general nature of such loss or damage, shall have been given in writing to the Carrier or to his representative at the place of delivery before or at the time of removal of the Goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under this Bill of Lading or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within three consecutive days thereafter and the parties hereby agree that failure to give notice as aforesaid shall discharge the Carrier absolutely of all liability whatsoever.

6.3.3.8 Time-bar

- (a) The Carrier shall be discharged of all liability in so far as it relates to sea carriage unless suit is brought in the proper forum and written notice thereof received by the Carrier within twelve months after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered subject always to Clause 6.3.3.3 above.
- (b) In all other situations not incurred or related to during sea carriage, the Carrier shall in any event be discharged of all liability unless suit is brought within 9 months of the date of the event giving rise to the claim.

Unless otherwise stated, mandated by compulsory applicable law, Carrier's liability for compensation for loss of or damage to goods shall in no case exceed the amount of USD500 per package or per customary freight unit, unless the Merchant, with the consent of Carrier, has declared a higher value for the goods in the space provided shall be the limit of Carrier's liability. Where a container is stuffed by Shipper or on its behalf, and the container is sealed when received by Carrier for shipment, the Carrier's liability will be limited to USD500 with respect to the contents of each such container, except when the Shipper declares the value on the face hereof and pays additional charges on such declared value. The freight charged on sealed containers when no higher valuation is declared by the Shipper is based on a value of USD500 per container. In land and domestic air transport, the Carrier's liability shall be limited to maximum USD0.50 per kilo, with a maximum of USD500 per Bill of Lading. However, Carrier shall not, in any case, be liable for an amount greater than the actual loss to the person entitled to make the claim.
